Game overview: The lands between the three great Elden kingdoms are scattered with border towns and castles. There are no conflicts or anything close to the large battles of the Elden Ring. When living peacefully, the border towns are full of pioneers who move across the border and gather together and increase their wealth. They are also places where bandits loot merchants and civilians, and people who lose the battle fall into the Dark Forest. The halflings who live in the border towns wait on the dusty main roads to send out runners for information about battles. A young nobleman, Tarnished, wishes to become an Elden Lord and visit the boundary of the Three Kingdoms. He goes to the border town of Armaine, which is under the rule of the evil Bandit King Corbin, and listens to the rumors of bandits, in the hopes of finding a way to fight those bandits. ■ Story outline: Tarnished is a young noble from the third Elden Kingdom, Elden. He lives in a small village named Carvall, and is doing his best to live peacefully, without causing trouble. However, his childhood friend, Boz, who was born in the same village, is a hardened young man. After their childhood was destroyed by a cruel girl's intrigues, they never talked with each other. One day, Boz hears a rumor from a traveler that there is a bandit king in the neighboring town Armaine. He rushes off to the town as fast as he can, goes to the tavern where information is gathered, and runs into a young man who heard the rumor earlier. He becomes an "Elden Lord" by joining the Elden Ring army to fight the bandit king. And thus begins the story of Tarnished's first action. ▼ Contents: ■ Online: ◆ Evolving online battles: Fight the enemy as an individual by changing your position and movement. ◆ The Battle System: In order to enact your strategy, you
